

Menu of Choices: RAFT Project

To make it easier for you, I am providing you with some choices. Please pick one row to do. If you have your own idea, you need to get approval from Mrs. Phillips first. Put thought into it: would Crispus Attucks write about the Battle of Bunker Hill? Answer: no, he died before it happened.

Role	Audience	Topic	I chose this one (mark an "x")
Benjamin Franklin	Colonists	Power
John Locke	Colonists	Inalienable rights
Thomas Paine	Colonists	Unity within the colonies
Samuel Adams	John Adams	Boston Massacre
King George III	Loyalists	Loyalty
Abigail Adams	Friend/Relative	Taxation Act or Boston Tea Party
Paul Revere	William Dawes/Samuel Prescott	Midnight Ride
George Washington	Troops	Valley Forge conditions
Loyalist	Patriot	Loyalty
Patriot	Loyalist	Independence
Thomas Jefferson	Second Continental Congress	Independence
British OR American soldier	Family	Battle at _____

Now you need to choose which format you would like to write your RAFT in:

1. Letter
2. Speech
3. Declaration
4. Newspaper Editorial w/political cartoon
5. Pamphlet

This is your time to be creative, however, you must stay true to the events and the way a person felt (You cannot say that Ben Franklin became a Loyalist in the end)! Try to write like they did in that time period. Do not use modern slang like "idk", "lol", and emoticons.
